

Ann and her husband Hoyt have been married fifty-nine years. They have two children (Johnny and Debbie), six granddaughters and nine great grandchildren. Ann received her Bachelor's degree from TCU in Science Education. Hoyt is a graduate of Texas A&M with a degree in Aeronautical Engineering. Ann began teaching high school science (mostly chemistry) when her daughter entered middle school in west Fort Worth.

She has two degrees from Brite Divinity School at TCU, a Master of Theological Studies and a Master of Divinity.

Ann has served Methodist Churches in Palo Pinto, Graford, Arlington and Handley. After retiring from the ministry, she served Poolville UMC as a retired pastor from, 2001 to 2006. Interestingly, she completed her seminary field service at Poolville UMC, where the people of Poolville sponsored her for ordination. Ann says, "It's great to be home again!"

Ann and Hoyt live on their 70 acre family farm just east of Poolville toward Springtown. Their grandchildren are actively involved in raising project animals for FFA projects. At the moment she and Hoyt have one family pet, an old, short-haired black cat named Sassy. Her favorite activities other than her family is watching sitcoms on CBS and various news channels.
